FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Romanza, The Art of the Tenor

“Passionate... enchanting sound... won the audience”

Singing of love, conquest, betrayal and heartache, from a melting serenade to a spine tingling 'high C', the tenor voices of Romanza will thrill patrons at Meaford Hall on Oct. 11th. The Meaford Hall Foundation presents this romantic evening of tenors Philip Grant, Todd Jang and Frederik Robert, who have been identified as "three talented, young, classically trained lyric tenors who have separately been delighting audiences across North America and Europe." Now together as ROMANZA, they have been winning people's hearts everywhere they perform. In fact, their official launch concert in Victoria, they sold out to a packed house of 1500.

They have also been profiled on CBC Radio2, The New VI, CKBD 600, A Channel and CFAX and have quickly earned a reputation as fun loving, approachable and talented artists. They are undeniable, joining in harmonies that swell and subside masterfully, charming you along the way with their obvious love of singing.

The three friends infuse their performances with their offstage camaraderie warming the audience with their intimacy and humour. ROMANZA have taken tenor repertoire to new heights by re-invigorating opera hits, Italian favourites, popular folksongs and well-loved ballads with their own irresistible and original arrangements for the contemporary audience. ROMANZA is the real deal. Authentic. Talented. Genuine. Tickets for the 8 pm performance are $35 and are available from the Meaford Hall Box Office or by phoning 1-877-538-0463 or email ticket@meaford.ca . Performances take place in the newly renovated Opera House, 12 Nelson St. E. For details this or any upcoming performances please call the box office or visit online at www.meafordhall.ca. Coming up next at Meaford Hall is Legend in Black – A Johnny Cash Tribute on October 19 at 8 pm and Mary Rowan and Magnum on October 21 at 2 pm.
